A Community Foundation for Hull & East Yorkshire

Community Foundations are charities dedicated to strengthening local communities, creating opportunities and tackling issues of disadvantage and exclusion.

They manage funds donated by individuals and organisations by acting as a vital link with local needs, connecting people with causes and enabling donors to achieve far more than they could ever by themselves.

The Hull & East Yorkshire Community Foundation was formerly Cityventure and will build on more than ten years experience in managing funding for a wide range of physical, social and community regeneration projects across the area from a combination of public and private sources.

The Foundation takes care of all legal and tax requirements as well as grants administration. It can offer:

- Tax incentives such as gift aid and share giving
- Support for company CSR policy without added staffing costs
- Full control of all donations
- Clear grant giving policies
- Effective monitoring and accountability
- Support for local PR and marketing messages

There are around 60 Community Foundations across the UK with over 25 years experience of targeted social giving with over £200m in endowment funds and now distributes £70m in grants to their local organisations and charities.
